THE HEDY LAMARR INNOVATION AWARD

OVERVIEW

DEG: The Digital Entertainment Group is pleased to announce the annual "Hedy Lamarr Award for Innovation in Entertainment Technology," which recognizes female executives in the field of entertainment technology who have made a significant contribution to the industry. The Award will be presented in November 2018, to coincide with the 104th anniversary of Hedy Lamarr's birth.

Austrian-American actress Hedy Lamarr was a Hollywood legend who is best known for her roles in a number of film classics including Samson and Delilah, The Strange Woman, and Tortilla Flat. She was also a lifelong inventor whose innovative work included pioneering "frequency hopping," which became the foundation for spread spectrum technology. Conceived by Lamarr and composer George Antheil for radio guidance systems and patented in 1942, this highly secure technology resists interference and dropout, and is utilized today for a variety of cellular, WiFi and Bluetooth applications.

To honor Ms. Lamarr, the Innovation Award seeks to recognize and commemorate women industry leaders that have made a significant impact in the field of entertainment technology.

Nomination forms must be submitted to DEG by February 15, 2018. The Judging Panel has sole discretion in choosing the Innovation Award winner.

Has the candidate overcome significant obstacles in her development efforts? Has the candidate demonstrated thought leadership in making her contribution? Was the contribution innovative and unique?

Are the benefits of her contribution tangible and/or measurable? Is the contribution cost-effective, practical and adoptable? Is it sustainable over the long term?

Excellence: Has the candidate's contribution reflected the highest levels of excellence, both in the development process and the outcome?
